Article 4 - Only one entry per person

There will be only one participation per person.

The organising company reserves the right to carry out any checks in order to ensure compliance with this article and with the rules as a whole, and in particular to exclude any participant who has committed any form of abuse, without however being obliged to carry out a systematic check of all the entries received, and may limit this check to the winners selected.

Article 5 - Prizes

The prizes are as follows: 1 SWIO Basic charging point (without installation).

Article 6: Delivery of the prizes

For the giveaway to run smoothly, each winner must agree to leave his/her personal details.

The overall winner will be drawn at random on 12/08/24. They will be contacted through a comment under the publication.

Article 7: Refunds

Participation in the competition is free of charge. Under no circumstances may the winner request reimbursement of any additional costs associated with the use of the prizes awarded. Prizes may not be taken back or exchanged for their cash value.

Article 8 - Force majeure

The organiser cannot be held responsible if, as a result of force majeure or any other cause beyond its control, the workshop has to be postponed, modified or cancelled.

Article 9 - Acceptance

Participation in the competition implies full acceptance of these rules in their entirety, as well as acceptance of the terms and conditions of participation.

Article 10 - Filing and consultation of the rules

These rules may be sent to any person who requests them from Losch Import, L-1818 HOWALD, 5, rue des Joncs.

The rules may also be consulted on the swio.lu website.

Article 11 - Information technology and civil liberties

In accordance with the provisions of law no. 7817 of 6 January 1978, amended by the law of 27 August 2011 on data processing, data files and individual liberties, participants have the right to access and rectify data concerning them and may request that their details be deleted and not communicated to third parties. This request must be sent by post to Losch Import, L-1818 HOWALD, 5, rue des Joncs.

Article 12: Personal data

Losch Import Sàrl and the participants shall comply with the legislation in force, in all its evolutions, concerning the processing of personal data (law n°78-17 of 6 January 1978, and EU regulation n°2016/679 of 27 April 2016). In this context, personal data may be transmitted and/or stored in countries outside the European Union. At the end of the game, the archiving of documents containing the said personal data will be carried out in accordance with the terms and conditions in force and, in all cases and Losch Import Sàrl will allow participants to exercise their rights if they so request (access, copy, information, deletion or rectification). To exercise this right, please send an e-mail to: luca.spielmann@losch.lu

Article 13: Applicable law - competent courts

These rules shall be exclusively governed by and interpreted in accordance with Luxembourg and European law. Any disputes that may arise in connection with the execution of these rules shall be settled by the courts of Luxembourg.

Article 14: RGPD processing

These rules provide for the processing of personal data with regard to Regulation EU (2016/679) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC and the Law of 1 August 2019 on the organisation of the National Data Protection Commission and the general data protection regime.

Thus, the processing of the personal data of any natural person who may be directly involved in setting up the game or, indirectly, by participating in the performance of the obligations arising from this operation shall be carried out in accordance with the terms of this clause.

The organiser undertakes to take organisational and technical measures to ensure the physical and logical security of information relating to each of the Parties and the natural persons directly or indirectly involved in this operation.

The organiser guarantees that the archiving of documents containing the said personal data will be carried out in accordance with current legislation and, in any event, will enable the persons concerned to exercise their rights if they so request (right of access, copy, opposition, rectification and deletion, and right to define directives relating to the fate of personal data for individuals who can no longer exercise them), subject to providing proof of their identity beforehand.

Participants are informed of their right to lodge a complaint with the Commission Nationale pour la Protection des Données (CNDP) and also inform the persons concerned. Any exercise of the right to rectification and/or deletion received by one Party must be forwarded to the other Party without delay.

Signed in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, on 04/07/24.
